

VILLAGE OF ROSEMONT

DESCRIPTION OF THE VILLAGE

The Village of Rosemont, incorporated January 20, 1956, is a home rule unit pursuant to Article VII, Section 6(a) of the 1970 Illinois Constitution. The Village of Rosemont became a "home rule unit" by referendum. Its purpose is to provide municipals services and facilities within its corporate laws in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State of Illinois. The Village is located immediately adjacent to Chicago's O'Hare International Airport, approximately 14 miles northwest of the Chicago "Loop." The Village is bounded on the north by the City of Des Plaines, on the south by the Village of Schiller Park, on the east by the Cities of Park Ridge and Chicago and on the west by O'Hare International Airport. It has an area of approximately 2,240 acres (approximately two and one-half square miles), of which approximately 740 acres are zoned for residential use and approximately 1,500 acres are zoned for commercial and industrial uses. The Village had a population of 4,224 according to the 2000 census.

The Village is governed by a Mayor and a six-member Board of Trustees, all of whom are elected at large for staggered four-year terms. Budget preparation, administration and the hiring of personnel are the responsibility of the Mayor and Board of Trustees. The administration and supervision of the day-to-day functions of the Village are the responsibility of the Mayor. The Village clerk is also an elected official who is elected for a four year term.

The Village provides various services to its residents, including police and fire protection, street and sidewalk maintenance and repair, garbage collection service and snow plowing on streets.. The village operates a water utility which provides potable water within the Village. The Village also owns and operates the Donald E. Stephens Convention Center, the Allstate Arena, the Rosemont Theatre and the Rosemont Health and Fitness Club.
