VILLAGE OF ROSEMONT AND PACE LAUNCH FREE ENTERTAINMENT
CIRCULATOR BUS ROUTE BEGINNING THURSDAY, AUGUST 1

New, Free Service Connects Rosemont Destinations to Rosemont CTA Station

ROSEMONT, IL – July 30, 2013 – In conjunction with the opening of the Fashion Outlets of Chicago, Rosemont Mayor Brad Stephens today announced that the Village partnered with Pace to develop the new Entertainment Circulator, Pace Route 811. The route begins Thursday, August 1.

The new bus route make stops at the Chicago Transit Authority's Rosemont Blue Line Station, MB Financial Park at Rosemont, the Fashion Outlets of Chicago and the Donald E. Stephens Convention Center. Buses will pick up passengers every 7-8 minutes. Through an agreement between the Village and Pace, there is no cost to use the route.

"Our proximity to the CTA Blue Line at Rosemont is already proving to be convenient for many employees of our 130 stores traveling to work every day – with upwards of 70 percent of staff at several stores commuting via public transit," said Fashion Outlets of Chicago General Manager Jim Hansen.

Service is available Mondays through Thursdays from 7:30 a.m. – 12 a.m.; Fridays and Saturdays from 8:30 a.m. to 3 a.m. and Sundays from 11:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

This service compliments the previously announced Rosemont Lunchtime Circulator, Pace Route 810. On weekdays, Metra riders can easily access the mall from the Rosemont Metra station on the North Central Service Line, which is located within easy walking distance of the mall.

"We are confident that the Fashion Outlets of Chicago are destined to become Chicago's leading shopping destination," said Mayor Stephens. "It is our commitment to ensure that everyone has easy access to the mall, as well as the MB Financial Park at Rosemont, and consequently are launching this free bus route as a courtesy to mass transit riders. We encourage drivers to take advantage of the Entertainment Circulator to reduce traffic congestion and avoid the expense of parking."

More information regarding Pace Route 811 Rosemont Entertainment Circulator- including the schedule and bus stop locations- is available at www.pacebus.com.
