FROZEMONT'S FOUR-STORY "POLAR PEAK" TUBING HILL TO STAY OPEN THROUGH MARCH 1, 2015

ROSEMONT, IL – FROZEMONT, the Chicago area's newest hotspot for winter fun located at MB Financial Park at Rosemont, has announced today that its four-story tubing hill "Polar Peak" will continue to operate through March 1, 2015.

FROZEMONT's four-story "Polar Peak" takes visitors on the ultimate winter tubing adventure. Its 260-foot run sends guests racing down a steep grade. Sponsored by "Disney on Ice presents Frozen" and constructed in partnership with StackBox Structures, Polar Peak features five distinct lanes, include a less steep lane for younger children. Tickets can be purchased onsite or online at www.mbparkatrosemont.com/frozemont for $20 per hour. Parents accompanying children ages two through five will receive free admission with the purchase of their child's ticket. Information on group rates is available online.

Guests can continue the fun with free Skating in the Park on MB Financial Park's popular NHL-sized ice rink Sundays from 2 p.m. – 8 p.m. Jan. 25 through March 1. Admission to the rink is free, with skate rentals available for $8.

Other FROZEMONT winter festivities include the Winter Frost Face Off hockey series. The series returned to MB Financial Park for a second season to bring together kids, adults, and local Chicago hockey professionals to participate in a series of hockey games and competitions through March 1. For more information and a complete schedule of games, visit www.200x85.com.
